

Brian Alcala

337 Brooks Avenue Apt. 1
balcala24@hotmail.com

Venice, CA 90291
(310) 591-7626

Career Objective

To obtain a storyboarding position in the Entertainment industry, utilizing my abilities and education.

Summary of Qualifications

Excellent communication skills
Outstanding organizational and presentation abilities
Positive attitude, energetic, eager to go the “extra mile”
Solid leadership qualities, dedicated team player

Educational Background

Art Institute of Los Angeles Santa Monica, CA
Major: Media Arts and Animation 2002-4
Computer Programs: Experience in After Effects,
Photoshop, Illustrator, 3d Max, and Maya

University of Hawaii at Manoa Honolulu, HI
Post Graduate work Summer 2000

Purdue University West Lafayette, IN Graduate 1999 Bachelor of Arts
Major: Communications Minor: Art

Work Experience

2003-2004

Film Roman North Hollywood, CA
Student Intern
Responsible for various administrative and artistic duties such as counting, cutting, labeling, faxing, and xeroxing animation scenes, copy and pasting characters, searched for creative mistakes, drawing characters in proportion from model sheets emphasizing body language and emotion, drawing characters and environments in perspective, drawing turnarounds, and clean up background drawings.

Activities

Member of The Surfriders Foundation, Oahu Chapter
St. James Mission, Volunteer Work, Honolulu, HI
Special Olympics Hawaii 2000 Volunteer
Morning Star Mission, Volunteer Work, Joliet, IL
St. Joseph’s Medical Center, Volunteer Work, Joliet, IL

